Either party upon receipt of the list of five (5) persons may reject the list in total and request another list.

The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue or issues submitted in writing by the parties and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted. The arbitrator shall submit the decision in writing within thirty (30) days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension thereof. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be shared equally by both parties. Each party will pay its own cost of preparation and presentation for arbitration. No stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made unless requested by a party. The cost of the stenographic reporting of the hearing shall be borne by the party requesting the same, except that the other party may request a copy of each transcript, in which case the parties shall equally divide the cost of stenographic reporting and of the transcripts.

Section 2. If an answer to a grievance is not presented to the employee by the Employer within any of the time limits specified in this Article, it is presumed that the grievance is denied and the employee may proceed to the next step of the grievance procedure. Failure by an employee, his Steward, or the Union to initiate or process a grievance within the time limits specified shall constitute a bar to initiating or processing such grievance.

Section 3. Grievances may be investigated, processed, and presented by a Steward during working hours within reasonable time limits without loss of pay, provided at least twenty-four (24) hour notice is given and the work load permits. The Employer's determination as to work load shall be subject to arbitration only to the extent that the Employer's action is shown to be an attempt to frustrate the grievance procedure, discrimination between or among employees, or to harass or coerce the Union.

Section 4. The parties may mutually agree to extend any of the above timeframes commencing with Step II.

ARTICLE 15

Seniority/Transfer

Section 1. Seniority is defined as an employee's length of continuous service with the Employer from the employee's most recent date of hire with the County.

Section 2. New employees shall be added to the seniority list from their date of hire after completing the introductory period.

Section 3. The seniority list for employees shall be maintained by the Employer and renewed and posted on employee bulletin boards once a year. Section 5. An employee promoted from the bargaining unit shall retain but shall not continue to accrue bargaining unit seniority.

Section 6. If a vacancy occurs or a new job is created in the bargaining unit other than a temporary vacancy or job, or if a vacancy or new job is anticipated by the Employer, then the Employer shall post such job for a period of ten (10) working days, during which time employees may apply for the job. The application shall be in writing and submitted to the elected official, department head, or a designated representative.

In making the selection, the Employer shall consider the applicant's qualifications, ability to perform, and seniority. Applicants within the department shall be considered by seniority before an applicant outside the department. If qualifications and ability to perform are equal, then seniority shall govern. However, in the event that no employee applicant is qualified for the job, the Employer reserves the right to select a person from outside the unit. Senior employees not selected for a job given to a junior employee, or to a person from outside the bargaining unit, may request a written explanation.

The Employer shall adhere to the employment and closed promotional policies contained within the Pottawattamie County Personnel Policy manual in filling positions.

Section 7. It is the right of the Employer to determine when a job is vacant and when it will be filled.

Section 8. A grievance alleging a violation of this Article may be commenced at Step II of the grievance procedure.

Section 9. A promotion is defined as the movement of an employee from a job classification to a job classification having a higher maximum salary rate. An employee who is promoted shall advance to the appropriate promotional pay grade assigned to the promoted job classification and shall go to the pay step that guarantees a minimum of a 5% pay increase. Employees shall advance through the wage progression annually, based on their new job classification date.

2. If there is a light duty assignment available outside of the department that satisfies the restrictions set forth by the physician, the employee may be assigned to said position.
3. Light duty is not meant to be a permanent work arrangement, therefore an employee will be placed in a light duty position for a period of time equal to the shorter of:
 - a. the time the employee remains under physician's restricted release, or
 - b. the light duty job is no longer available

If an employee remains on restricted status following the completion of thirty (30) calendar days of light duty, his/her health condition will be evaluated to determine whether or not further light duty is appropriate.

An employee shall receive the pay and benefits of their regular job classification as directed by this labor agreement, during their assignment to a light duty position.
